Robinson Music Festival

ROBINSON, Texas – January 27, 2016

The Robinson Music Festival, formerly known as Rocktober Fest, is the annual Robinson Festival set to take place Saturday, October 1st in Robinson Texas (southeast of Waco). The festival began as something fun for the citizens of Robinson to attend and enjoy as well as to encourage tourism to the City of Robinson. Last year's festival attracted over 1500 people, and with its successful attendance it inspired the City to change the name to encompass the true theme of the event, music. Our hope is this annual event will grow to a much larger scale such as festivals like; the Great Mosquito Texas Festival, Chili Fest, and Holland Corn Festival.

The Festival will encompass an array of musical acts beginning shortly after the gates open. The festival will include a Kids Rock area with a petting zoo, inflatables, face painting, a trackless train ride and pony rides and of course Snow Buddies will be returning this year with their one dollar snow cone refills. There will be a vendor area, live music and the George's Big' O Tent for the adults to enjoy. And the event doesn't stop there, it will offer several contest such as; a goat roping and chili cook off as well as the annual washer tournament (benefiting the Robinson ISD Education Foundation).

First thing Saturday morning we will begin with the Robinson Music Festival Fun Run, a run benefiting the Robinson ISD Foundation which will include a ½ mile, 1 mile, and 5K. Festival grounds will open at 11 a.m. beginning with an opening ceremony.

The Robinson Music Festival held in Robinson, Texas is an enjoyable event for the entire family. Our festival committee would love for you to be a part of it by joining the planning committee or just coming out Saturday, October 1st to Peplow Park, we believe you will be musically satisfied.
